

John Trudeau-BBB of Coastal Carolina

John Trudeau has been placed on leave pending an audit of the books. The board of directors has stated that they lack confidence in his ability to run the bureau. There is also talk of a class action lawsuit against him due to the documented hostile work environment he created.

Better business bureau does take sides!

The better business bureau does take sides!, this is a lie on their website we do not take sides! wrong, the better business bureau takes the side of the business! they are useless they do not help you resolve anything or get what you pay for!. The, better business bureau is a joke they protect the business who has something to hide! they are a fraud!.
