IMO, THE BBB SMELLS

They sure do.

Let me touch upon one trade, BASEMENT WATERPROOFING and many companies who install INSIDE SYSTEMS and their BBB membership.

Hey, many of these companies have MILLIONS of dollars to blllchtt homeowners outta their hard earned cash and when they run into problems-after installing their water-diverting inside systems and there are further LEAKS,cracks in basement walls widening,wall bowing in, mold.. homeowner COMPLAINTS...their PAID BBB membership and...the fact several OWNERS of INTERIOR Waterproofing Co's are ON the Better Business Bureau BOARD OF DIRECTORS, LOLOLOLOLOL!!!!

You talk about a scam, a good blllchtt story, HOLY SHTT!

These companies and the BBB are in bed, no doubt in my mind!

They have gotten themselves/PAID to get their rear ends on the BBB BOARD to...CONTINUE to bbblllchttt people out of their mony AND, to keep their BBB 'Customer-Complaints' DOWN...and/or SHOW their BBB record to be 'SATISFACTORY'....when they REALLY have 20-30-50++++ Customer complaints JUST WITHIN THE LAST 36 MONTHS.....buncha CROOKS IMO.

ALL about MONEY....yep, Jerry Maguire 'n SHOW ME THE MONEY. In THIS BUSINESS, Bsmt Water'g....MANY CO's ONLY or most always want to install these interior systems, there are hundreds and hundreds who PAY the BBB so, last thing the BBB wants is to BE HONEST and SHOW ALL-the-COMPLAINTS against these companies and make these hundreds of Interior Co's angry, they do NOT want to LOSE them, the MONEY!! So they'll COVER SHTT up, oh yes they do!

The more members the BBB would lose, the less likely they are around, yeah, don't want to lose their salaries do they. Buncha glue sniffing farts they are.

Yes, they've contacted myself to try and bs me to become a member, shtt, WHY would ANYONE want to PAY-SOMEONE elseif they don't have to, if they have nothing to hide. Shtt, i have thousands of HOMEOWNERS to use as actual REFERENCES....certainly am NOT going to PAY the BBB or any OTHER ORG, like the NAWSRC, HONEST contractors don't need any ORG, dang it!

And thats it, THEY USE EACH OTHER TO SCREW CONSUMERS!!!! They most certainly do.

Hey...i have done a TON of homework in searching THIS business, Bsmt Waterproofing...and companies BBB records. All throughout the USA, all states.

To save some time/space here, i'll try and end this post and say....

In searching these SUPPOSED BBB results/records, HOW is it that some Waterproofing Companies, usually the larger ones(more money and they are BBB paid-members) can accumulate 25-50+++ complaints withing the LAST 36 months and, the BBB SHOWS them to have a 'Satisfactory record'...VERSUS a small company who is NOT a BBB-paid-member and has 1 complaint in LAST 36 months...BBB often shows them to have an 'UN-satisfactory' record.....know what i mean?

Some of these SAME companies who've accumulated x-amount of complaints///YET BBB shows 'Satisfactory record'....have had ATTY GEN lawsuits against them.

Money.. 'DOES BUY YOU LOVE' with the BBB!
