Steve Cox, the president of the 120 chapter Better Business Bureau Council in the U.S. and Canada, is much better public relations spinner than a reformed who is going to bring credibility to the 99 year organization. In response to a devastating ABC TV 20/20 investigation this month on his organization, Cox now says that errors were made – unintentionally – that reforms will take place. Hamas A- rating Connecticut Attorney General Richard Blumenthal launched an investigation into the Connecticut BBB chapter after he was embarrassed by it by agreeing to be on its annual program with a company being honored for

Political buzz catapults Martinez to DC 2012

Susana Martinez was elected governor only three weeks ago, and already there's a political buzz about bigger and better things for New Mexico's first-ever woman Governor. How about Vice President Martinez? If that's over the top, consider this one: US Attorney General Martinez. Here's the blogosphere scenario that has her headed to Washington DC - the Republicans beat President Obama in 2012, and the new President picks Martinez, a longtime district attorney, to run the US Justice Department. Joe Monahan, the state's best-known politics blogger (at joemonahan.com) says the tall talk is part of the Governor-elect's honeymoon with New Mexico voters. "When you're on your honeymoon, the world is at your feet, and for Susana Martinez this is just a continuation of the marriage ceremony she had with the voters," said Monahan. "A lot of this will fade and she will be greeted by the black curtain of Santa fe in about 60 days when they deal with that huge budget deficit. But as for Susana becoming Attorney General - enjoy the talk while it lasts, because it never does!" One honor already bestowed on Martinez came from the Republican Governors Association when it selected her to be a member of the group's leadership committee. Martinez will be sworn in as Governor on New Year's Day. On January 18 the Legislature will convene for a 60 day session that will certainly be dominated by the state's ongoing recession-driven budget crisis.
